

RESIDENCES

Here is a list of the most important residence halls in San Sebastian with a link to their web pages.

The University of Deusto in San Sebastian does not have a residence hall.

Accommodation will be arranged by the student since all the residences are private.

Those interested in this type of accommodation are advised to apply as soon as possible since they are usually occupied well in advance.

The price ranges from 700 euros to 1300 euros per month (approximate prices). The price may also vary depending on the number of services chosen, such as laundry service, cleaning of the room, etc...

The residences can be of different types: secular or religious, male or female, and with a greater or lesser number of rules that can sometimes be uncomfortable for university students
