

LEISURE, CULTURE AND COMMUNICATION FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Recommended candidate profile

1. DETAILS OF THE RECOMMENDED CANDIDATE PROFILE

Once the entry requirements for the Doctoral Programme have been met, and considering the interdisciplinary nature of the programme, the recommended entry profile is as follows:

1.1 Academic background

- C1 level in English or other EU languages.
- Applicants who have completed an official Master's degree related to the research areas recognised by the University of Deusto, upon which this Doctoral Programme is based, will be given priority in the admission process.

2. ASSESSMENT CRITERIA AND WEIGHTING OF ACCREDITED QUALIFICATIONS

Item	Indicator	Weighting	Source
Undergraduate Degree Transcript	Average score/Alignment with the doctoral research area.	15% + 10%	Academic transcript

Master's Degree Transcript	Average score/ Alignment with the doctoral research area	15% + 20%	Academic transcript
Research experience	Publications and projects	5%	Curriculum Vitae
Alignment of research interests with the programme's focus areas	Assessment by the academic committee	15%	Research proposal. Assessment by the team's principal investigator
Other merits	Continuing Education Professional or volunteer experience Time spent abroad	5%	Curriculum Vitae
Other merits	Professional aims Expectations about the programme Attitude and personal maturity Expected commitment to the programme	5%	Motivation letter and personal interview
Having a research grant	Grant award / Duration and amount	10%	Grant award document