ADMISSION CRITERIA

The admissions committee will assess the following requirements:

- Academic transcript
- Language certificates (in cases where it is an entry requirement)

When necessary, the committee reserves the right to invite candidates to a personal interview, or to request additional supporting documents within the deadlines established for this purpose.

For more detailed information on the general admission process and other specific requirements for admission to the degree, please see the admission instructions 2023/24