

Master's Degree in Systemic-Relational Psychotherapy GRADUATE PROFILE

The graduate profile for this Master's degree (official Spanish diploma) is that of a professional who has following characteristics:

- Have an ability to solve problems and make decisions within the psychotherapeutic process, interact effectively with patients, supervisors and colleagues, develop new and innovative methodologies and approach problems taking into account the relationships between all significant factors.
- Have the ability to apply professional and ethical psychotherapeutic skills from various systemic and dynamic perspectives and in different contexts.
- Have the ability to perform the following functions within a framework of professional integrity:
 - Assess, diagnose, plan and implement supervised psychotherapeutic interventions.
 - Write reports accurately.
 - Effectively communicate results to target audiences.
 - Critically appraise and reflect on the results, or adapt or change clinical practice, accordingly.