

Master's degree in General Health Psychology

CANDIDATE AND GRADUATE PROFILE

Candidate profile

- Candidates should hold a degree in Psychology.
  - According to order ECD/1070/2013, 90 of the credits of the Psychology degree must be of a health-related nature in order to be admitted to the _____ Master's degree. More info.

Graduate profile

The graduate profile defined for this Master's degree is that of a professional who can competently perform the following duties:

- Observe, assess and diagnose a health disorder based on the integrated biopsychosocial model.
- Carry out a psychological and psychopathological diagnosis of the different disorders in health and mental health, in particular.
- Adapt and implement adequate psychological and psychotherapeutic intervention.
- Gain an in-depth knowledge of the psychosocial problems associated with health disorders.
- Carry out a psychotherapeutic intervention with patients affected by health and/or psychopathological problems.